

Josh Boyd Green

Work: I am a bookseller in Hay, where I run Green Ink Booksellers with my wife Ellen. Previously we ran Alice's Bookshop in Melbourne, Australia.

Interests: I grew up just over the border in Herefordshire and have lived in Hay since 2015. As well as being a councillor I am on the board of the Hay and District Chamber of Commerce and I look after the bookings and maintenance for Hay Parish Hall.

Reason for joining HTC: I joined the council to get more involved in the community. I believe that, as citizens, we have a responsibility to each other and, as a councillor, I hope that I can best offer my skills and my time to the town.
